

PREVENTATIVE PRODUCT

She has been abandoned, or widowed. Perhaps she has been raped or seen her sister sold. Maybe she has to feed her family and has nothing to sell but herself. These are the stories of women at risk—women who are vulnerable, desperate, and targeted by traffickers. By empowering women to make a living with dignity, WAR, Int'l's preventative programs strive to “rescue” these women and children before they ever fall prey to traffickers. Women who can provide for themselves and their families are not lured by the money and opportunity “promised” by strangers. They are not driven to selling themselves—or a child—out of sheer desperation. These women can afford education for themselves or their children. They can forge new futures for their families, leave a legacy of safe places, and break generational cycles of poverty and exploitation. The beautiful product in your hands was crafted by one of these women, a woman protected and empowered against all odds.

STORIES OF RESCUE & EMPOWERMENT

Your Name Here!

Every time you buy a WAR, Int'l product, you protect and empower an at-risk woman. When you share their stories, you become a voice for the voiceless, sounding a war cry on behalf of those kept in silence. When you volunteer your resources or time, you enter into the front lines of the fight to lift women to dignity. You are our fellow soldier. You have jumped into the trenches with us. Together we can help the baby, woman, or child who is hiding there, waiting for an escape from the oncoming attack. If a woman does not have a way to make a living, she will crawl out of the trench looking for food for her family. If she doesn't, her family or some traffickers might pull her out and demand she make them a living. Rescue is not enough—it is only the start. Buying the work of her hands not only gives safety but offers freedom, dignity, and a new start. These women are not asking for a handout. They are asking for a hand up. Thank you for becoming our fellow WARrior and joining the fight for at-risk women around the world. We couldn't do it without you!
